PERSONAL.

R. S. LYONS, of Boone County, has been a few days in Stanford.

Miss Mary Woodward has returned from a visit to friends in Hustonville.

Mrs. MARY BOWMAN and little daughter, Virginia, have returned from Harrodsburg.

Mrs. W. E. VANDERBILT and Miss MARY VANDERBILT, went up to attend the Fall Centennial.

Miss ELLA FAITH, of Broadhead came down yesterday to visit Miss Betty Mc-Allister.

Mrs. LUCY BEAZLEY, who recently moved to Louisville, is very ill. Miss Mamie, her daughter, went to her bedside Saturday.

Among the visiting attorneys attending Court yesterday, were Messrs. W. O. Brantley, Geo. Denny, Jr., H. T. Noel, H. C.
Kaufman and Frank Hinkle, of Lancaster, and J. C. Sauter, Monticello.

The next Governor of Kentucky, if he wants to be, depending a few weeks in Stanford. We refer to Judge M. H. Owsley, at once the most thorough as well as one of the most popular gentlemen in the State. We need such a man as Governor, to restore the office to that dignity and east, of which it has been so unfortunately deprived by the present incumbent.

business, Capt. Thomas Richards would be glad to attend to any clock repairs in town or country that may be entrusted to him.

THE END.—After a remarkable run of five months, the risk will close next Friday night. Every body is invited to come and wind the thing up in a lively manner.

OWING to the fact that yesterday was County Court day in Boyle, a rather small crowd assembled here, the number being confined almost to those who had actual business in the Court.

THE Rank reports which appear in an-

THE ENTIRE.—Apropos of the Fall Centennial celebrated at Richmond, yesterday, Mrs. Jeff. Hill, furnishes us the following: "Capt. James Hill, the hero of Fall Centennial, has twenty-three living descendants residing in this county, viz: One grand-child, Mrs. Edna Hill (whose mother, Belle Ann Hill, was his only daughter and youngest child).—Five great grand children, six great-grand, great-grand-children, and one great, great, great-child."

MINNIE.—About a week ago Bob Woods, a negro blacksmith at Shelby City, beat his wife in a quarrel about her wanting to go to church, and finally struck her a severe blow on the head. Monday morning the woman died and a coroner's jury rendered a verdict that her death was caused by the blow. Yesterday afternoon as we learn by telegram, Woods was arrested and taken to jail in Danville.

THERE has been an addition to the P.
O. at the College. She is not flesh and blood like the others, but dressed up in their best clothes and standing out in the yard, she looked so natural that even Willie Hawker took her for one of the genuines and made it one or two of his best loves. In fact, it is said, that he walked by several times for no other reason than to get a chance to lift his hat to the supposed beauty.

A LUCKY ESCAPE.—Engineer Soden tells us that Saturday last as his train was moving pretty lively between Mt. Vernon and Mt. Vernon, Henry Dewart, a brakeman, lost his footing and fell from the car in such a position as to have his penis cut from him by the wheels of the train and yet he received no injury save a bruise on the shoulder, the result of the fall.

The train was stopped and Dewart climbed aboard and went till he met the passenger train, when he returned home on it, resolving that if he is ever killed in a railroad accident, it will not be in the capacity of a brakeman.

COURT.—At 9:45 A. M. yesterday, Judge M. H. Owsley, appeared on the bench, and inaugurated the Spring Term of his Court. The first business was the calling of the Grand Jury, several of whom were reported sick, and one or two others dismitted on account of ineligibility. The list is completed as follows: John H.
Miller, S. A. Middleton, Ben. F. Goode, J.
C. Hays, J. M. McRoberts, Jr., J. R. Mc-Clary, Robt. T. Mattingly, F. M. Yowell, (Foreman), Shelby Skidmore, Jerry Briceson, George W. Springer, S. D. Anderson, J. F. Dyer, Abram Smith, James Paxton, R. E. Pace. Commonwealth's Attorney, R.
C. Warren, delivered the charge to them in a very forcible and comprehensive manner, dwelling especially on the importance of using every effort to ferret out the miserable assassins of John Shanks and the colored man, John Carr. He touched on all the crimes known to the statute books, and impressed on the jurymen the importance of investigating a case as thoroughly as possible, so as to bring in no indictment that could not be sustained by the proof, as it ran the State to unnecessary expense, and was a hardship on the accused.

The following petit jury was then selected: Larkin Willis, George W. King, J. M.
Hall, John Anderson, Dan Caldwell, Wm.
Perkins, Adam Pence, E. P. Woods, Richard Cobb, John Butt, Liberty Green, Lewis Dudders, Menefee Elmore, Alex. Traylor, Brent Barnett, G. S. McKinnon, M. R.
Lytle, James D. Hastin, W. H. Hawkins, J. M. Carter, Jr., C. C. Bishop, Sam'l Flint, Allen Beasley and D. S. Jones.

The case of James Mounce for gaming was filed with leave; as was also that against Isaac Stapleton for unlawfully injuring property.

John Benedict was given ten days in jail and fined $25 for carrying concealed weapons. He did not appear and a forfeiture was taken on his bail bond. There was another case against Benedict, in which he was charged with shooting with intent to kill. In this the Judge fined him $25 to be paid in labor if not reprieved.

M. P. Morgan for giving whisky to minors was fined $50.

The trial of John W. Gooch for the murder of Constable Killian, was set for the 13th day of this term, April 3d, and that of S. B. Conn, for the 8th day, March 28th.

Robt and L. P. Cuffey were fined $20 in three cases for giving a minor liquor.

The case of Graham and Reed for the killing of Cam Rowan, was continued for the defense on account of the absence of some of its witnesses.

County Judge E. W. Brown reported the collection of $18 by him in fines and taxes on petitions. John Hain, County Clerk, collected $417.50 as follows: Tax on 181 deeds, $100.50; 55 mortgages, $27.50; 7 powers of attorney, $3.50; 47 sales, $23.50; 5 taverns, $250; jacks, $3, and bulls, $10.
Circuit Clerk James J. Bailey reported $22.50, collected on fines and petitions.

The docket having been called, the Court adjourned at 4 p. m. till this morning at 9 A. M.

A HANDSOME stock of Bird Cages opened at W. H. Higgins' today.

GEN. PORTMAN caught a cat fish in Green River, Saturday, that measured 23 inches in length.

DEAD.—John Ferrell, who was wounded by Froman Minor, about a month ago, in the identical manner in which (Jar-field was, died Sunday. Minor is still at large.

REWARD.—The Governor has offered a reward of $300 for the apprehension of Froman Minor, charged with shooting John Ferrell, in this county, and $250 each for the apprehension of John Shanks near Crab Orchard, and John Carr, near this place.

MARRIAGES.

—To-day at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. M. C. Reynolds, near Waynesburg, Mr. W. J. Montgomery will lead to the altar Miss Fannie Reynolds.

—About eighteen months ago Mrs. Kate Mandi sought and obtained a divorce from her husband, Constantine Mandi, on the grounds of drunkenness and cruel treatment. Since then until recently they have been strangers, but the hearts that once truly loved never forget, and when Constantine showed his suit and swore that he never would get drunk any more and would treat her as his wife, Kate willed, as to speak, and fell on his neck and wept. Saturday they sought the aid of County Clerk John Hain, who, there being no legal reason why he should not, very willingly for the sum of a dollar and a half, issued the necessary papers which, the reconciled pair, looking as happy as two lovers after a foolish quarrel, took to County Judge Brown and asked him to speak the words that should reunite them until another divorce Court shall separate them. The Judge, who has gotten to be quite an expert in the art of marrying people, but who had never been called on to recite a knot that the Court had united, blushed to the very roots of his hair, but restrained presence of mind enough to haul his manuscript of the ceremony out of its dusty place in the pigeon hole, and to read, the document which was fully a yard long.
Having completed the reading and getting the necessary answers in the affirmative, the Judge pronounced the twain for the second time one flesh, and they do say he gave the bride a kiss that sounded like the report of a small pistol. On the 11th—The Judge denies the latter statement, and says it is nothing more nor less than a base fabrication of the enemy. Mr. and Mrs.
Mandi have our sincerest good wishes on their second start in life together, and we join their many friends in trusting that they will never again have to resort to the divorce Court for relief from each other.

RELIGIOUS.

—The widow of Bishop Marven died at Fredericton, Mo., Friday.

—The number of conversions at the St.
Paul Methodist Church in Cincinnati now reaches 1,000.

—At the Methodist revival now progressing in Harrodsburg, four Maglans have been converted and turned from their evil ways.

—A Garfield memorial window has been placed in St. James' Episcopal church at Long Branch. The window contains a fine likeness of the late President.

—Mr. J. M. Wray was re-elected as active ruling Elder of the Presbyterian Church Sunday. During his absence he still retained his membership here.

—Rev. M. M. Benton has been appointed by the Episcopal bishop to the editorial charge of the Kentucky Church Chronicle.
Mr. B. was formerly pastor of the Danville Church.

—Mr. Barnes finds the Paris people slow to embrace the offer of healing either for the body or the soul, but we predict he will yet come out conqueror, and go away with what he calls his best wages.

—At the Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church a resolution was adopted condemning all camp meeting associations which agree to receive a re-baptism from Sunday trains on the railroad.

—The annual meeting of the American Bible Society was held Sunday in Washington. The receipts for the year in that city were $379,949; expenditures, $375,135.
Of the receipts $104,039 were donations and legacies.

—The members of the Christian Church were much pleased with Dr. Cox, who preached twice for them on Sunday, and who did not call him to be their pastor.
This question is to be decided next Sunday, and if he is called, his first appointment will be on the 1st Lord's Day in April.

—The Democrat says that a permanent Fruit Cure is about to be established in Louisville. Mr. Burghard, the merchant having tendered the use of a brick house with 8 rooms free of rent to the cause. It will be open April 1st, and Mrs. L. A.
Baldwin, who staid at Pink Cottage a long time last summer, will be in charge with Rev. J. W. Henton and wife, evangelists from Allen county, as second in command.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP.

—Eleanore white seed corn for sale by Thornton Porter.

—J. M. Hall sold to John H. Shanks, 5 2-year-old cattle for $150.

—F. D. Albright bought of G. A. Lackey, 20 tons of hay, at 45 cts. per hundred.

—Capt. J. M. Higgins sold at auction yesterday a lot of indifferent calves at $7 per head.

—N. W. Frazer bought a fine pair of mules from Eli and Joe Peim for $500.— (Paris Citizen).

—Mr. J. M. Hall has lost four sheep, supposed to have died from eating the wheat on which they were turned.

—H. A. & J. T. Tracy sold last week to R. B. Hutchcraft 2,000 bushels of bluegrass seed at 52 cents per bushel.—(Clark Democrat).

—Geo. W. Alford bought in Danville yesterday a pair of broke mules 1 1/2 hands high, 5 years old for $285. Mr. Green Bright sold one for $135.

—B. L. Wood, of this county, has bought about 1,000 pounds of 51 cents, to be delivered on the 1st of June. He has nothing under 60 pounds.—(Jesseman Courier, —Prof. Riley says that the heat and drought of last summer have killed off the Hessian fly, and that immunity from its attacks may be expected for some years to come.

—There are 933 entries for the twenty stakes to be contested for at the annual meetings of the Monmouth Park Association in 1892, which shows that the interest in running races is increasing. The entries of the Saratoga Association aggregate $26, —DANVILLE COURT.—Big crowd in town, and about 400 cattle offered, mostly of inferior quality, and sold low. Fair brought good prices; common, 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 cents; best 4 to 5 cents; horses from $60 to $150. No mules offered. H. T. Bush, auctioneer.

—In his report to the Commissioner, Mr.
J. S. Murphy says that stock never looked better in March than it does at present.
Wheat prospects are fine, and no sign of frost can be discovered. Grass very forward and stock already turned on much of it.
Plowing for corn steadily progressing.
Fruit safe up to date.

—George W. Alford, who has just returned from Montgomery, Ala., tells us that he has bought out his partner in the livery stable business in that city, and is now running it himself. He says that stock is very dull, but that the prospects are good. Mules from 14 to 15 cents high sold while he was there at from $100 to $125.

LINCOLN COUNTY.

—The banks of the River are in a bad fix, and they are nearly impassable.

—We appreciate the Semi-Weekly visit of your ever welcome JOURNAL. Success to you and yours.

—Farmers are about done breaking up corn land and are ready to plant. Oats are nearly all sown, and the outlook is promising. Wheat never looked better.

The health of our section is good, and we are all in high spirits.

—Rev. Jasper Livingston preaches at Moon's School-house on every 4th Sunday in each month. The new church edifice in process of erection will be completed as soon as the weather permits, and the members agree upon some small details, there having been some objection as to the size of the doors. The majority of those who subscribed the money for the house are already agreed, and the few objections come from outside parties. When completed the building will be commodious and comfortable.

BOYLE COUNTY.

—Mr. T. R. Walton, of the INTERIOR JOURNAL, was in town today.

—To-day was County Court day. A greater number of cattle than usual were sold, and the prices they brought were good.

—Advices from Shelby city state that the wife of Robert Woods, a negro blacksmith, died on Saturday night from the effects of a brutal beating given her by her husband. A coroner's jury found as above indicated. No other particulars.

—Circuit Court closed on Friday with the conviction of Wm. Richardson for horse stealing, and the sentence of "Major" Prewitt for house breaking. Richardson acknowledged his guilt, and got off with one year in the penitentiary. Prewitt went for two years, although many disinterested spectators of the trial thought his conviction unwarranted by the evidence.
Both are colored.

—On Saturday night a male child but a few hours old was left on the porch of the residence of Henry Farris on Lexington street. The little fellow was neatly dressed and wrapped up in a clean sheet, but had not received the surgical and other attention that newly born infants all require. Mr. Farris, happening to think of a colored woman who had a child, took it to her to nurse, and she is now taking care of it. There is no suspicion as to where the young gentleman hails from. The wise ones are non-plussed for once, but may, with their usual industry, solve the mystery after a time.

—It should be a matter of congratula-tion to those respectable individuals in and about Danville, who take so much interest in what other people eat and drink, that there is every reasonable indication that they "have got Captain Whiskey down." Why not? The last Boyle county Grand Jury was in session first and last, between three and four weeks, and they did not return a single indictment accusing any one in Danville of unlawfully (?) selling the cotton. It may be that none was sold, or that the j. p. paid more attention to the law as given them by the court, and declined to return indictments on insufficient evidence, hearsay evidence, or on suspicion.

—Dr. Addison Horlan is a colored physician, on whom head the snows of many winters have descended. When he dons his stove-pipe hat, throws his haversack containing "roots and herbs" over his shoulder, and starts out on a "doctoring" tour, his face wears an expression of medical wisdom that would excite the envy of Esculapian. He has a poor opinion of the attainments of all his white and black brethren in the profession. The other day while the wisard old man was pouring forth a torrent of eloquence in praise of his medicine, Dr. Harlan stood on the opposite corner and glared at him over his left shoulder. Your correspondent happening to pass the Doctor, caught his eye and remarked: "Wait till the first dark night, boys, and I will go to the woods and catch a few wizards, and I'll show you I can make as good oil as that man. I'm a doctor!"

WAYNE COUNTY.

—Mr. J. E. Vickary entered upon his duties as government Storekeeper, at Miller Bros' distillery, on Beaver Creek, this morning.

—Farmers have got in a good week's work and are generally done sowing oats.
Considerable progress is already made in hacking corn ground.

—Married, on the evening of the 14th inst, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. William Hurt to Miss Maggie Vick-er. The ceremony was pronounced by Elder J. J. Shearer.

—H. S. Phillips has just returned from the cities where he has been purchasing his spring stock of goods. Judge Berry will visit the markets next week, to buy a new stock of goods.

—There has been a great slaughtering of dogs in this vicinity of late, the reduction of rabies, in consequence of hard times, caused the aforesaid canines to de-pendate upon the neighboring sheep folds, and the late farmers are being evenged.

—An inquest Amoris de inquisido was held in the case of Isaac C. Clodder, of this county, last week. His mind had been unsettled upon some subject for several years, and he had been confined in an Asylum upon a previous occasion, for a few months. But he had sufficiently recovered to enable him to manage a farm very skillfully. Indeed he seemed never to be satisfied unless actively engaged at labor, and on Sundays he would spend his time chiseling words and sentences upon every smooth stone he could find, until there was scarcely a stone, for five miles along the highway, upon which he lived, that did not contain some motto. The present unsettled condition seems to be a religious frenzy. He has been taken to Anchorage.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

NEW SPRING AND SUMMER MILLINERY.

Miss Belle Henson desires to inform the Ladies of this vicinity that she is constantly receiving a very handsome line of stylish new Spring and Summer Millinery, which she offers to the public at very low figures. Among her beautiful stock of Trimings are all the latest designs, including the rings, metallic flowers, and a large assortment of Milkmaid Trimmings, where the greatest attention is given to the cutting, fitting and making of all kinds of dresses.

—I will send my young Jack, Jack John, at my place, 5 miles East of Stanford, at 97 to 100 cents a pair to get up, walk around his neck and back.
No cut, no pay. If the mare is tired or removed from the neighborhood without satisfying me that she is not in heat, the owner is to pay. He is 5 years old, past, black with nearly none and about 15 hands high. Call and see him at once.
